

I would be extremely upset if K-LOVE was taken off the air. I'm a young Christian, and this station actually has good music, not boring old church music. It is positive in everyway and encourages me to live a better life. Without it, I would be stuck listening to garbage music. I know many other people who love this station too. This station reaches thousands of listeners everyday, why would you even consider taking it off the air?